

Advanced Dungeons & Dragons 2nd Edition Complete Monster Language List

Notes:

- 1): The Monsterous Manual not consistent when discussing if a creature races posses a unique language.
- 2): Most languages are listed with the creature description - with exceptions for several where other monsters list it as part of their language set.
- 3): Any animal, animal-like, or hybrid which is mostly animal will typical not have a unique language.
- 4): Some monsters do not have a proper language, and communicate through other methods, such as clicks, grunts and growls. These creatures are not included on the list.
- 5): Animals, Mammals, Insects, Amphibians and other unintelligent creatures are not included on this list.
- 6): Mental forms of communication have been included as these are mentioned as primary forms of communication.
- 7): Few creatures intelligent enough to have a language were excluded from this list, but the DM is free to determine if they have a native tongue, or simply speak common.
